“Knowledge is not enough; we must apply. Willing is not enough; we must do.”

Oxbridge group of Institutions (Previously SKM College) was established in 1997, when some eminent personalities had gathered together for a discussion with a purpose which soon caught up the idea to use their resources to form an organization which cater to the growing needs of the public in the Educational field. Other meaningful friends were roped in to accepting the idea and SKM Educational Trust was established.

To help our students achieve academic success we provide what we believe to be the best teaching and other infrastructure facilities available at the institute to satisfy the needs of the profession and the community. The warmth is of the faculty members who foster knowledge and acknowledge students who do well not only in classes but also excel outside the classrooms. The back bone is the management and alumni of the college who are providing pathways for students long after their studies through placements and training.
